TERMS & CONDITIONS

Terms & Conditions

1. These Terms and Conditions are attached to and incorporated into the above referenced Agreement as though fully set forth in full therein. Capitalized terms if not defined herein shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.
2. The appraisal, draft and/or final, shall be delivered in electronic format (typically, pdf).
3. The appraisal process will commence upon receipt by Valta of the LOE, signed by Client and the fee payment. The appraisal process will conclude upon delivery of the final appraisal report, unless terminated sooner by the Valta or Client or as provided herein.
4. Intended users of the appraisal include only the Client and no other party is permitted to use or rely on the appraisal. (Intended Users), and no other party is permitted to use or rely on the appraisal. The identification of Intended User(s) of the appraisal is to determine the type and extent of research, analysis and reporting appropriate for the assignment. Designation of a party other than Client as an Intended User is not intended to confer upon such party any rights under this LOE.
5. Nothing in the Agreement shall create a contractual relationship or any legal duty between Firm or Client and any third party, nor any cause of action, right, or claim in favor of any third party and against Firm or Client. In addition, this Agreement is not intended to, and shall not be construed to, render any person or entity a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the appraisal report shall reflect the foregoing. In addition, the appraisal report shall state that no party other than an Intended User identified in the Agreement is entitled to rely upon the appraisal
6. The Intended Use of the appraisal is solely for the use stated in this LOE and no other use.
7. The analyses, opinions and conclusions are to be developed based on, and the appraisal will be prepared in conformance with the current edition of the Canadian Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (CUSPAP) as published by the Appraisal Institute of Canada.

8. The appraiser will use and properly apply all applicable and appropriate approaches to value sufficient to produce credible assignment results. The scope of the analysis will be appropriate for the appraisal problem.
9. The appraisal will be subject to Valta's standard Assumptions and Limiting Conditions, which will be incorporated into the appraisal report. In addition, the appraisal may be subject to, and the appraisal report may contain, Extraordinary Assumptions and Hypothetical Conditions.
10. This shall constitute a binding agreement only if countersigned by the Client, or by an officer, director or other representative of the Client who, by signing and accepting this Agreement, represents and warrants that he/she is authorized by the Client to do so.
11. The Client will be invoiced for the appraisal fee (and any expenses) which will be paid in full upon executing this LOE. Valta will not commence or provide services (report delivery) prior to payment.
12. Payment of the fee is not contingent upon any predetermined value or on an action or event resulting from the analysis, opinions, conclusions or use of the appraisal.
13. In the event the Client fails to make payments of any fees or sums when due and payable under this Agreement; then from the date due and payable until paid, the amount due and payable shall bear interest at the maximum rate permitted under the laws of the state in which the Property is located. If the Firm is required to undertake collection efforts including institution of legal action against Client relating to the Agreement, the Firm shall be entitled to recover attorney's fees, litigation expenses, and costs from Client.
14. Any significant changes to the assignment as outlined in this Agreement, such as the identity of the Client, Intended User, or Intended Use, will require the preparation and execution of a new agreement.
15. The Client may cancel this Agreement at any time prior to Valta's delivery of the appraisal upon written notification to Valta. Client shall pay Valta for all work completed on the assignment prior to Valta's receipt of such written cancellation notice, unless otherwise agreed upon by Valta and Client in writing. Valta may withdraw without penalty or liability from the assignment(s) contemplated by the Agreement before completion or reporting if the Valta determines, in Valta's sole discretion, that incomplete information was provided to Valta prior to the engagement, that the Client or other parties have not or cannot provide documentation or information necessary to Valta's analysis or reporting, that conditions of the property render the original scope of work inappropriate, that a conflict of interest has arisen, or that the Client has not complied with its payment obligations under this Agreement. Valta shall notify the Client of such withdrawal in writing.
16. It is assumed that there are no matters affecting the Property that would require the expertise of other professionals, such as engineers or an environmental consultant, for the Firm to provide the appraisal. If such additional expertise is required, it shall be provided by other parties retained by Client at Client's sole cost and expense.

17. Client acknowledges that the Firm is being retained as an independent contractor to provide the services described herein and nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to create any other relationship between Firm and Client, including but not limited to an agency relationship. The parties neither intend nor have any expectation that any such relationship will arise as a matter of law or as a result of this Agreement. This assignment shall be deemed concluded and the services hereunder completed upon delivery of the appraisal described herein to Client.
18. All statements of fact contained in the appraisal report as a basis of the appraiser's analyses, opinions, and conclusions will be true and correct to the best of the appraiser's actual knowledge and belief. The appraiser is entitled to, and shall rely upon the accuracy of information and material furnished to the Firm by the Client. The Appraiser is also entitled to, and shall, rely on information provided by sources upon which members of the appraisal profession typically rely and that are deemed to be reliable by members of that profession without independent verification.
19. The Firm and the appraiser shall have no responsibility for legal matters, or questions or issues involving survey or title, soil or subsoil conditions, engineering, zoning, buildability, environmental contamination, structural matters, construction defects, material or methodology, or other similar technical matters with regarding the Property. Furthermore, the appraisal will not constitute a survey of the Property.
20. The appraisal and the data and information gathered in its preparation (other than the confidential data and information provided by Client) is and will remain the property of the Firm. The Firm shall not violate the confidential nature of the appraiser-client relationship by improperly disclosing any confidential information furnished by Client to the Firm. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Firm and the appraiser are authorized by Client to disclose all or any portion of the appraisal and appraisal report and the related data and information, including confidential data and information provided by Client, to appropriate representatives of the Appraisal Institute of Canada if such disclosure is required to comply with the Standards, Bylaws and Regulations of the Appraisal Institute of Canada, as well as, such disclosure as required by law and regulations, including compliance with a subpoena and licensing authority regulatory inquiries. The Firm is also authorized to include both confidential and non-confidential data assembled in the course of preparing the appraisal and which may be incorporated into the appraisal report in a database controlled by the Firm for the aggregation of such data and information to produce analytics and other metrics or products.
21. Unless specifically noted in the appraisal report, the appraisal will not take into consideration the possibility or probability of the existence of asbestos, PCB transformers, other toxic, hazardous, or contaminated substances and/or underground storage tanks (hazardous material) at on or in the Property, or the cost of encapsulation, removal or remediation thereof
22. Client shall indemnify, defend (by counsel to be selected by Firm), protect, and hold Firm and Firm's appraisers, agents, employees, affiliates, representatives, successors and assigns (each, a "Firm Party"), free and harmless from any and all claims, liabilities, losses, penalties, fines, forfeitures, amounts paid in settlement, judgments, and all reasonable attorneys' fees and related litigation costs, fees and expenses incurred by the any of such indemnitees, which result from (i) any failure by Client or Client's agents or representatives to provide Firm with complete and accurate information regarding the Property; (ii) any material breach by Client of the provisions of the Agreement; (iii) if delivery of the appraisal to a third party is permitted by the Firm, Client providing an incomplete copy of the appraisal to such third party; or (iv) arising from Client or Client's agents or representatives providing a copy of the appraisal to a party not authorized by the Firm to receive such copy.

- 23. In preparing the appraisal, it is possible that the appraiser will discover conflicting information. In that event, appraiser will utilize information and data considered to be the most authoritative and for critical information will document the source. Information and data referred to may include, but is not limited to, legal descriptions; physical street addresses; assessor parcel numbers; property history; dimensions and areas of the site/land; dimensions and areas of the building improvements; physical unit counts; rent rolls; leases; lease abstracts; income and expense data; and any other related data. Any material discrepancy and/or error in any of the above data could have a substantial impact on the conclusions reported, and the Firm therefore reserves the right to amend conclusions reported if the Firm is made aware of any such discrepancy and/or error.
- 24. The appraisal may not be used, included or referenced, in whole or in part, in any offering or other materials without the prior written consent of the Firm, which consent may be conditioned upon the receipt by the Firm of an indemnity agreement, in form and content, satisfactory to Firm and provided by an indemnitor satisfactory to Firm. Client agrees to pay the fees of the Firm's legal counsel for review of any materials which is the subject of the requested consent. Except as agreed by the Firm expressly in writing, the Firm disclaims liability to any party other than Client.
- 25. The Firm shall not provide a copy of the appraisal to, or disclose the results of the appraisal to, any party other than Client, unless Client authorizes same, except as provided in the Canadian Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (CUSPAP) or as otherwise required by law or regulations.
- 26. The Client and any other identified Intended User should consider the appraisal as only one factor together with its own independent considerations and underwriting guidelines in making any decision or investment or taking any action regarding the Property. Client agrees that Firm shall not be responsible in any way for any decision of Client or any Intended User related to the Property or for the advice or services provided by any other advisors or contractors.
- 27. Unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, Client agrees that the services pursuant to this Agreement shall not include participation in or preparation for, or attendance at, any legal, judicial, administrative, or arbitration proceeding relating to this assignment. In the event the Firm or any Firm Party is required, whether through the service of a subpoena or otherwise, to produce documents or participate in or prepare for any discovery, testimony or attendance, relating to the appraisal or this assignment, where the Firm or Firm Party is not a party to the action or proceedings involved, Client agrees to reimburse expenses incurred by the Firm or Firm Party, including attorney's fees, in responding to such subpoena or other legal process and compensate the Firm therefore based upon the appraiser's prevailing hourly or daily rate for providing services as an expert consultant or witness.
- 28. Except as expressly provided herein, Firm makes no representations or warranties to Client or to any other person or entity with respect to the appraisal and the services to be provided by Firm under this Agreement. To the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, in no event will the Firm or any Firm Party be liable to Client or any third party (regardless of whether such party's claimed use or reliance on the appraisal was authorized by the Firm or a Firm Party) for any indirect, special, exemplary, incidental, or consequential damages (including loss of profits) arising from or relating to this Agreement or the appraisal, even if such party knew or should have known of the possibility of, or could reasonably have prevented, such damages. In no event shall the total liability of the Firm or any Firm Party to Client or any third party (regardless of whether such party's claimed use or reliance on the appraisal was authorized by the Firm or a Firm Party) arising from or relating to this Agreement or the appraisal, whether based on tort, contract, or any other legal theory, exceed the amount of fees paid to the Firm for the appraisal and the services described herein. Legal claims or causes of action relating to the appraisal are not assignable, except: (i) as the result of a merger, consolidation, sale or purchase of a legal entity, (ii) with regard to the collection of a bona fide existing debt for services but then only to the extent of the total compensation for the appraisal plus reasonable interest, or (iii) in the case of an appraisal performed in connection with the origination of a mortgage loan, as part of the transfer or sale of the mortgage before an event of default on the mortgage or note or its legal equivalent.

29. To the extent permitted under applicable law, any legal action or lawsuit or other proceeding by Client or any Intended User of the appraisal against Firm or a Firm Party whether based in contract, tort, warranty, indemnity or otherwise, relating to the appraisal shall be commenced within two (2) years from the date of delivery of the appraisal to the claimant in such action or proceeding, unless the applicable law provides for a shorter period, and any such claimant waives the right to a jury in any such legal action or lawsuit or other proceeding. Notwithstanding the state of domicile or residency of either party to this Agreement, this Agreement shall be governed and construed under the laws of the province in which the Property is located, and venue for any action or proceeding arising out of this Agreement shall be deemed proper only in the court of competent jurisdiction located in the province in which the Property is located.
30. Throughout the performance of services under this Agreement, the Firm shall maintain at its sole cost and expense the following insurance:
 - a. Workers' Compensation, so as to provide statutory benefits as required by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Firm's services are being provided, and Employer's Liability insurance with limits of liability of $1,000,000 each accident, $1,000,000 disease each employee and $1,000,000 disease policy limit covering all employees of the Firm engaged in the performance of such services.
 - b. Fidelity insurance or bond with a limit of $1,000,000 to insure the Firm against loss of its or Client's assets caused from the dishonest acts of the Firm's employees.
 - c. Professional Liability insurance with a limit of liability of $1,000,000 each claim and $1,000,000 aggregate, which limits may be provided by a combination of primary and excess policies.
 - d. Commercial General Liability insurance providing coverage against damages due to bodily injury (including death), property damage and personal and advertising injury arising in connection with the Firm's services provided under this Agreement, which insurance coverage shall: (i) be occurrence-based; (ii) provide limits of liability in an amount of $1,000,000 each occurrence and $1,000,000 aggregate (including excess and/or umbrella limits), (iii) include at least those coverages generally included in the most current ISO Commercial General Liability insurance policy form (or its equivalent); and (iv) include Client, and such other persons or entities as Client has identified in writing, as additional insureds solely with regard to claims arising out of this Agreement.

e. Commercial automobile liability for owned, hired and non-owned motor vehicles, with a $1,000,000 combined single limit.

- 36. The subject property information will be requested to be delivered to the Firm to provide the proposed services and prepare the Appraisal within the agreed upon time frame. Physical data such as the site plan, previous engineering reports and/or property reports describing the physical attributes of the Property and all financial information such as rent roll and income and expense statements first as these items are the most time sensitive and should be received immediately to meet the time requirements of this assignment. Other information may include building plans, leasing brochures, recent sale, offer or listing details, sale brochures, offering memorandums, options to purchase or sell agreements, leases, financial statements, operating budgets, management contracts, tax information, title, actual and/or projected construction costs, environmental reports, recent and/or proposed capital expenditures, list of known repairs or maintenance items with costs and name of contact person and contact information for physical inspection or tours.
